Globe-Wernicke Sectional Bookcases

enable you to classify your library

You can devote one section to poetry, another to history, another to short stories, and so on until your entire library is classified.

As new sets of books are purchased, new sections can be added to your bookcase at a few dollars each.

In many homes the children have a section or a complete Globe-Wernicke Bookcase for their books. Parents find this encourages the children to helpful reading habits.

Globe-Wernicke Sectional Bookcases are made in styles and finishes to harmonize with all interior trims.

OLD ENGLISH JURIES.

They Were Fined or Beaten For Not Reaching a Verdict.

Not always enviable was the lot of the old time jurymen, for there was always the prospect of trouble if the verdict did not gratify the higher powers. Thus the failure of a jury to convict Sir Nicholas Throckmorton made Queen Mary "ill for three days," and she came out of her sick chamber to fine the disobedient jury (meanwhile confined in prison) the sum of $10,000 a head.

Elizabeth followed the same plan, and the practice of fining English juries did not cease until 1670, when a fine inflicted by the notorious Jeffreys was rescinded on appeal.

In some old time "courts of quarter sessions" the injunction to lay their heads together had to be carried out by jurymen in literal fashion. When they began to consider the verdict they were supposed to dive beneath the level of the jury box and remain in that cramped position until a decision was reached.

Meanwhile the court usher stood near the box armed with a long wand of willow. If any jurymen ventured to emerge above the surface before the twelve minds were agreed down came the wand on the head of the offender. —Chicago News.

To-morrow night the orchestra goes to Waterbury, to furnish music for a hospital dance; on Wednesday evening to Wells River, where music will be furnished for one of the biggest concerts and balls of the year, Thursday night at the North Montpelier hall for the annual old and young folks ball; Friday evening at Montpelier for a public dance and on Saturday night an engagement in the Howland hall.

When Women Knew Not Golf. A correspondent sends the Glasgow Herald some anecdotes of that period, not so long ago, when women knew nothing of golf. One lady, making sympathetic conversation at dinner, said to a keen golfer: "I often see you in your red coat. Do you need many dogs to play golf?" A younger lady said she knew exactly how the game was played. "They get what they call a caddler to hunt about in the grass till they find a round stone, and then they hit it into a rabbit hole." A third lady, who had evidently enjoyed a nearer view of the game, said: "It is played by two men. One is a gentleman and the other is a common man. The common man sticks a ball on a lump of dirt, and the gentleman knocks it off!" —Westminster Gazette.

Dear Elsie:

We're organizing a Highland Linen Club. I've chosen white, Marie uses Harebell blue, Elsie pink, and the other girls, gray, tan, light blue and so on. We all had a writing party yesterday, and when we dropped the letters in the mailbox, it looked like a rainbow! Why don't you start one?

Sincerely,
GENEVIEVE.

Peter Giachero of 91 Smith street underwent an operation on his left knee Saturday which will detain him from his duties in the N. D. Phelps Co.'s store for several days. A week ago Mr. Giachero was playing hockey at North Barre, when the puck struck him a glancing blow on the knee. The member pained him for a few days and then the pain disappeared. Recently the young man consulted a physician and learned that the mishap had injured a bone in the knee.

Friends in this city of Stephen Creighton of Aberdeen, Scotland, will be interested to learn that he is a member of the second division of the Big Northern football league, playing a conspicuous part with the Aberdeen club. Young Creighton is receiving meritorious comment from the press in Scotland for his brilliant work and seems likely to land a berth in the big league in a few seasons. Mr. Creighton is well known in Barre, having been associated with football clubs in the city for several years. He is a cousin of Leslie Creighton of Maple avenue. In Barre "Steve" Creighton was a member of several football clubs and was regarded as one of the best players ever seen in this section.

Great Sagamore E. O. Downs of Boston, head of the Improved Order of Redmen in America, will be the guest of honor at the annual joint pow-wow of the East Barre, Barre and Montpelier Red Men in the Capital City next Friday evening. A committee consisting of three members each from Wuchosen tribe of East Barre, Iroquois tribe of Barre and Sioux tribe of Montpelier received a telegram to this effect Saturday night. Mr. Downs will be one of the principal speakers of the evening.

All of the state officers have been invited to participate in the gathering and with one or two exceptions all have signified a desire to be present. Others will be heard from within a few days. It is expected. Past Great Sachem E. N. Eastman of Ashland, N. H., will also attend. The joint committee is planning for the entertainment of more than 200 Red Men. The program will conform to the arrangement of exercises followed when the three lodges got together in Barre last winter. Wuchosen tribe will work the adoption degree on a class of several candidates and afterwards there will be a banquet and speechmaking.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Postoffice Inspector W. P. Armstrong of Burlington was in town Friday and Saturday on official business. While here he made a regular inspection of the office and also took up the loss of government property by burglary on the morning of Aug. 18, 1911. It was at this time that the front door of the office was forced open and the safe blown and a quantity of stamps and government funds stolen. The thief on watch outside fired two shots at George Marr, who was at that time the landlord of the Monument house next door. Though this all happened so long ago and the gang who did the job have most of them been tried and convicted, its loss had never been adjusted by the government, the postmaster being held liable for the loss. It is a fact of some interest to the owner of the safe that the department, while requiring stamps and other valuable property of the United States to be kept in a safe, will not entertain any claim for its loss, which must be borne by the postmaster.

H. A. Thurber returned last week from a business trip of about 10 days, to Concord, N. H., and Gardner, Fitchburg and Worcester, Mass. His daughter, Lena, who entered the academy at Lancaster, N. H., last fall, returned with him, the condition of her health making it advisable for her to give up school for the present.

Mrs. Nellie Wilde of Rutland, a cousin of Mrs. Henry Griffin, is with her for a stay of indefinite length. Mrs. Griffin is somewhat improved in some ways since her return from the hospital, but is far from being her old self.

All members of the grange are invited to attend a social at the home of the master, Herman Smith, on the evening of Friday, Jan. 30.

Mrs. Henrietta Slocum of Maine, a cousin of the late Mrs. Levi D. Carr, is at the home of Mr. Carr for the present.

Everybody remember the lecture by Julius Caesar Noyce to-morrow evening. It is hoped there will be a large attendance.

Mrs. Walter M. Williams is away on a visit to her parents in Gayville and will be gone a week or more.

We now have a fully equipped lunch wagon in our village, located on Beckett street, just east of grange hall. The proprietor, D. W. Smith, is having a better patronage than had been prophesied for him, as parties coming from adjoining towns for freight go to the grange hall, find a hot cup of coffee quite cheering on a cold day.

Notice. I will be at the town clerk's office Saturday, Jan. 31, to settle with those having bills against the town for winter work. H. N. Farnham, road commissioner.

A joint meeting of Sioux, Wuchosen and Iroquois tribe will be held in city hall, Montpelier, Friday evening, Jan. 30. The committee in charge have secured some good speakers for the occasion and Wuchosen tribe of East Barre will work the adoption degree on a class of palafates. Corn and venison will be served. The committee would take it as a great favor if those intending to go would hand in their names as soon as possible to E. C. Barrett, James Jerome or H. L. Thompson, for Sioux tribe; J. H. Geborn, Morris Leonard or John I. Noyce, for Wuchosen tribe; W. W. Russell, Peter Brown or Alex. Ross, for Iroquois tribe.
